As part of our CAREER PATHWAYS PROGRAM our secondary level schools proudly offer students unique academic offerings to follow their passions, and master strategic employability skills. This coursework guides students as they form essential career connections and can act as a gateway to employment. Through coursework in the below fields of study, students have the opportunity to follow their passions as they build valuable skill sets.