Pasta Sauce (Gluten-Free)

<http://www.celiac.com/articles/22198/1/Pasta-Sauce-Gluten-Free/Page1.html>

By Destiny Stone

Published on 07/2/2010

Traditional pasta sauce is naturally gluten-free. Although finding a safe gluten-free pasta sauce is work, and finding a sugar-free, gluten-free pasta sauce is virtually impossible. That is why the following recipe is so great. Not only is this homemade pasta sauce recipe easy and quick, it is also healthy and gluten-free. Please remember to use all gluten-free spices and ingredients and to check with the manufacturer if you aren't sure.

Pasta Sauce (Gluten-Free)

Preparation: 5-10 minutes

Cooking Time: 10-15 minutes

Ingredients:

- ½ cup of water
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper
- 1 stalk of chopped celery
- 1 chopped onion
- ½ teaspoon basil
- 2 tablespoon chopped parsley
- ½ chopped green bell pepper
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 (6) ounce can tomato paste
- 1 (8) ounce can tomato sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon thyme
- 1 teaspoon oregano
- ½ teaspoon himalayan salt, or to taste
- dash cayenne red pepper

Note: The canned tomato paste and sauce can be substituted for the equivalent amount of homemade paste or sauce. Also, as always if certain ingredients don't agree with you, leave them out or substitute them for things you like. I know many people like bell peppers so I kept them in the recipe, however I substitute bell peppers for sauteed mushrooms; and I am not big on onions, so I use half an onion to taste.

Directions:

1. Combine the garlic, onion, green pepper & celery in a large skillet.
2. Add the 1 tablespoon olive oil and saute' until soft.
3. Once the ingredients become soft, add any ingredients that are left.
4. Stir well. After covering, simmer for up to 7 minutes.
5. Stir again and simmer another 2-3 minutes.
6. Serve with your favorite gluten-free pasta and have yourself a healthy, gluten-free pasta dish.
7. Top with feta, basil, or toppings of your choice and enjoy!

Destiny Stone

I diagnosed myself for gluten intolerance after a lifetime of bizarre, seemingly unrelated afflictions. If my doctors had their way, I would have already undergone neck surgery, still be on 3 different inhalers for asthma, be vomiting daily and having chronic panic attacks. However, since eliminating gluten from my diet in May 2009, I no longer suffer from any of those things. Even with the proof in the pudding (or gluten) my doctors now want me to ingest gluten to test for celiac-no can do.
