

Competition like no other

■ Odyssey of the Mind mixes problem-solving, creativity, performance

Photos by SUSAN WEININGER/Acorn Newspapers

USING THEIR HEADS—Above, students from Sequoia Middle School receive the Spirit Stick for being the best cheering section. At left, seventh-graders representing Los Cerritos Middle School display their second-place awards.

TEAMWORK—At left, Lucy Anne Heine-Van Fossen, 14, of Medea Creek Middle School, dons a costume for the 2018 Odyssey of the Mind Regional Tournament on Feb. 24 at Westlake High School. Medea Creek won the Ranatra Fusca Award for Outstanding Creativity. At right, a team from Lang Ranch Elementary School celebrates its first-place finish. Lang Ranch and other winners will advance to the state competition.

