

Resource 2a

Test Your Baby Smarts

TRUE FALSE

Check the correct box.

- | | | |
|--|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Most of the unwed fathers of young pregnant females will stick around after the child is born. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. Boys of single parents have about the same rate of committing crimes leading to incarceration as the general population. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Children in single-parent families are more likely to be poor. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. Most teen moms will finish high school. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. Children of single parents are less likely to be victims of child abuse since dads, who may be more strict or harsh, are gone from the house. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 6. Children of single parents are twice as likely to have children themselves as teens. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 7. Children of single parents are no more or less likely to drop out of school or do poorly in school than children in married two-parent families. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 8. Children in single-parent families have about the same rates of emotional and behavioral problems such as depression, ADHD, impulsivity, and conduct disorders when they are school age as kids in two-parent families. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 9. Kids in step-families have social, educational, and emotional profiles that look pretty much like biological or adopted kids with two married parents. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 10. "You guess" question: What are the median earnings of a two-adult household today in the United States? For a household with a single parent? | $ | _____ |