

COURSE TITLE: English 11CP

Level of Difficulty	Estimated Homework	Prerequisites
Moderate	30-60 minutes	District: None Department Suggestion: Passing grade in English 10

Course Description:

During this course, students will focus on textual analysis of various genres of text such as fiction, non-fiction, poetry, short stories, political speeches, and myths from mostly American authors and political figures. Throughout the course, students will utilize figurative language within their analysis, further build their vocabulary and grammar, and enhance research skills in preparation and completion of a benchmark assessment—a 1500 word literary analysis of an American novel. The course is geared towards fostering a more globally-aware student, and is designed to meet the academic English requirements necessary for students to be successful in post-high school educational programs.

Grading:

Grades are divided between summative and formative assessments. Expectations are based on the common core standards.
